

TO: Robert Mann

Worldwide Intelligence Network

Dear Robert,

It is with great pleasure that I write this recommendation for your services. When my son had run away from home last summer, I feared I would not see him again. Thanks to you and your work, we were able to reunite within days and work out whatever issues had surfaced.

Your conduct in this case was speedy and professional. You kept in contact the entire time and were always quick to update us on any new information you had obtained. You went so far as to personally drive to a different city and getting in touch with the local authorities there. My son returned to me safe and unharmed, and I can only imagine what might have happened had you and your team not been there to handle the situation.

I cannot recommend your services highly enough. It is truly a blessing that we found this service. Anyone who needs this work will feel safe and secure in their decision to hire this company and the man who heads it.

All the best,

9/5/13

---

Manny & Elena Gonzalez

Fort Myers , Florida